Connection with Anti-Trust League Loses Latter Marshalship.

CLOSE FRIEND OF BRYAN

Questioned by Attorney General, He Admitted He Was Treasurer of Organization.

His connection as treasurer of the Na-tional Anti-Trust League has cost Cot-ter T. Bride a 5.00 job as United States marshal for the District of Columbia. marshal for the District of Columbia.

The Anti-Trust League, which has been given much unpleasant publicity of late as a result of its friendly relations with David Lamar, now called The Jackal of Wall Street. Is a nebulous organization of whom the only tangible members are Henry B. Martin, its general manager, and Herman Schulteis, its counsel. Mr. Bride, who is said to have contributed $1,000 to the organization when it started, is carried along as treasurer.

Despite the fact that Mr. Bride Iways has been looked upon as Mr. tryan's closest friend in Washington, and has served as the Commoner's representative in conferences here during the long stretch of Republican years, it is understood that Mr. McReynolds' refusal to appoint Mr. Bride will not cause any ill-feeling in the Cabinet.

WORK FOR "RED LIGHT" WOMEN IS DESCRIBED

Employment Obtained for Nine, and the school building. Twenty-two Are Under Supervision, Says Committee.

Favorable progress in the work among he women of the "red light" district was reported at the meeting of the executive committee of the central citizens' com-mittee, held yesterday.

A preliminary report shows that fifty-one girls have been under supervision. Of this number three have been restored to home and friends, three are receiving medical care, one is under institutional care, employment has been secured for tine, twenty-two are under friendly supervision, and the whereabouts of the remaining eight are unknown.

The report of the treasurer, Cuno H.
Rudolph, shows receipts of $87.75, with the following expenses: Expenses of house, 12% Ohio avenue, $149.46; clothing, board, &c., for individual girls, $22; theater meeting, $25; office expenses, $22.58. ter meeting, 25; office expenses, 22.38. A balance of $28.71 is still in the treasury. The methods of enforcement of the Kenyon "red light" law are criticised in resolutions adopted by the Men's Club of the Church of the Ascension. It is urged that the police be required to change their tactics, and a copy of the resolutions has been sent to the Commissioners and Maj. Sylvester.

LUEBKERT ARREST A MISTAKE.

Meini of Company Explains and

The arrest of Otto Luebkert, resident vice president of the American Audit Company, last week on a charge of enbezzing from the company was a mistake, according to Theodore Cocheu, of New York, vice president of the concern, who yesterday caused the case against Luebkert to be dismissed in the Police Court.

Luebkert to be dismissed in the ronce Court.

In a letter to United States Attorney Wilson, Cocheu says:

"I came to Washington to check up an apparent shortage in Luebkert's accounts and he told me the books called for 1151 more than was actually on deposit. Later I was informed he had purchased a ticket for Atlanta. Ga.

for Atlanta, Ga.
"I swore out a warrant for his arrest, but after his arrest Luebkert showed me a telegram from a friend requesting the purchase of the ticket."

Cocheu further explains how he tried to have the case dropped, but was unsuccessful. He also states that Luebkert's accounts are all right.

The Eastern carriers petition The Eastern carriers petitioning to a per cent increase in freight rates will get their first advance beginning April 1. It developed yesterday that officials of the Interatate Commerce Commission When Mr. Bryan was given the State portfolio, it was generally understood that Mr. Bride would get the marshalship if Mr. Bryan could bring it about. The Secretary of State was one of Mr. Bride's strongest indorsers, though the local man's candidacy had the indorsement of some of the biggest Democrats in public life.

Attorney General McReynolds was in a receptive mood as far as Mr. Bride's tengence mood as far as Mr. Bride's tonger make the allowances. The carriers have received assurances from his connection with the Anti-Trust steel industry alone amount to $15,000,000 a year, will meet with its approval.

Officials of the commission yesterday expressed themselves as pleased with the prompt manner in which the carriers co-operated in bringing about the reform in connection with the allowances to industrial lines. As stated above, the recent Industrial Railways Line case of the commission involved only the iron and steel industry. It is explained that when the principles enunclated by the commission are applied to other industries and the carriers get the full bene-fit of the through rate, their revenues will be vastly increased.
